

Beginning Dialogues – “Tie Your Shoes!”

Dad: Tie your shoes!

Michael: Okay, Dad. I will.

Mom: Tuck in your shirt!

Michael: Okay, Mom. I will.

Sister: Empty the trash!

Michael: Okay, Sis. I will.

Grandmother: Make your bed!

Michael: Okay, Grandma. I will.

Grandfather: Do your homework!

Michael: Okay, Grandpa. I will. Hey, Little Brother!

Little Brother: Me?

Michael: Yes, you! Tie your shoes!

Questions:

1) What does Mom want Michael to do?

- A. Tie his shoes
- B. Make his bed
- C. Tuck in his shirt
- D. Do his homework

2) Who is probably the youngest person?

- A. Michael
- B. Sister
- C. Little Brother
- D. Grandma

Vocabulary:

1) Tuck in your shirt means...

- A. put the bottom of your shirt inside your pants.
- B. button the top of your shirt around your neck.
- C. wear a clean shirt.
- D. fold your shirt.

2) When something is empty, it ...

- A. is full.
- B. has nothing in it.
- C. is heavy.
- D. none of the above.